Announcement

To the intending buyer of Short Horns, I will say, try to arrange to attend the joint sale to be held at South St. Paul, October 24th, by B. W. Aylor and Leslie Smith & Sons. This is a large offering and there will be selections in bulls and females that will satisfy a discriminating demand. Some especially good bulls will be sold, and when it comes to females, I want to say after inspecting them that I have not seen many offerings that were much better. I mean what I say, and the man wanting seed that can be recommended will not waste his time by being in attendance.

Mr. Aylor has one of the strong herds in the entire Northwest. He has taken to his Riverview farm some of the best cattle from our best herds, and when you see his lineup you will surely appreciate what he is doing in Short Horn improvement. He has one of the good bulls in Maxwalton Stamp 2d, a son of Maxwalton Renown, whose dam is by Whitehall Count by Whitehall Sultan. His get are fashioned along particular lines and females bred to him should be the kind to buy. No man will go wrong in buying such seed as he sells.

It seems hardly necessary to say anything in the recommendation of Leslie Smith & Sons as breeders of Short Horns. I suppose that Leslie Smith is as widely known in Short Horn circles on the two continents as any man in America. Leslie Smith has been with Short Horns all his life.

It is a business that he knows, every angle of it, the breeding and showing of cattle that have captured the most coveted ribbons in every show, the conduct of a great breeding herd, the importation of cattle from the herds of Great Britain, his expert knowledge of the fine points of a show animal and everything that goes with the business he knows like a book. Where is there a possible buyer of Short Horns who would not welcome the opportunity to buy the kind he is producing at his Meadow Lawn farm?

Come to this auction if you possibly can. You will see a string of cattle that will appeal to your fancy if you want the good ones.

(Signed) FRANCIS T. MARTIN,
With The Breeders' Gazette.

54th Duchess of Gloster is a beautiful heifer of the modern Scotch type. She represents the great Duchess of Gloster family famous in the hands of Mr. Cruickshank from the Cruickshank viewpoint we believe our Duchess of Glosters are the equal in breeding of any cattle living. We may be in error, but at least do not recall any cattle whose pedigrees run directly or collaterally so many times to Champion of England, Lord Raglan, Pride of the Isles, Cumberland, Dunblane, Roan Gauntlet.
